RALPH M. JENSEN

Ralph Jensen Campaigning For Police Chief

Bertram E. Hill, former mayor and member of the Albany City Council for eight years, today has entered the race for Chief of Police which will be decided by voters at the April 13 city election.

The candidate has resided in Albany for the past 30 years and is owner of the Union Oil service station at Solano and Stannage Aves. He resides at 905 Stannage Ave. with his wife, Catherine, and daughter, Beverly.

During his eight years on the

906 E. HILL

BERTRAM E. HILL

Council, Hill served four years as police commissioner and an equal number of years as fire commissioner. He was also a commissioner in the Peace Officers' Civil Service Association of California, a member of the Veteran Firemen's Association of Alameda County, a member of Northern California Fire Chiefs' Association, Humane Officers of California and a member of the Elks Club. Hill is a past president of the Albany Exchange Club and Albany Parlor of Native Sons of the Golden West.

After outbreak of World War II, he served as 1st Pilot on a B-17, completing nine bomber missions over Germany. On his 10th mission he was shot down, captured and spent 19 months as a prisoner of war in Germany.

Discharged from the air service with the rank of captain, Inspector Jensen entered the University of California to further education halted by war. In March, 1948, he was appointed to the Albany Police Department. Since that time he has worked to increase his professional efficiency by enrolling in law enforcement courses with other peace officers of this area.

Inspector Jensen enters the race for chief with the support of many Albany residents and the high recommendation of O. W. Wilson, director of the University School of Criminology.

Dean Wilson, a former Berkeley policeman and a national authority on police administration, was called in last year by the Albany City Council to make a survey of the police department, copies of which are available to interested citizens at the Albany Public Library.

"If elected I pledge to provide the city of Albany with those services required of a modern, well-trained police department and with a fair and impartial administration of our laws," says Inspector Jensen.

MRS. FRANCES ARNOLD

Mrs. Arnold Is Candidate for Albany Council

Mrs. Frances Kelley Arnold of 1058 Pomona Ave. today has filed as a candidate for the office of City Councilman, four-year term, at the Albany municipal election on April 13.

She is entering the campaign at the request of the Albany Better

Government Association, and

shares with Mayor Lewis Howell

the endorsement of the group for the Council vacancies to be voted upon.

"Although I had not previously considered becoming a member of the Council," Mrs. Arnold said, "I believe that all citizens should do what they can to help with their city government. My friends have convinced me that my greatest contribution can be made as a Council member.

"I have assured the Association that I shall be able to give to the job sufficient time to become well informed on all issues confronting the Council. Voting on every issue is necessary, I believe if the people who elect me are to be represented properly, and they have a right to expect it. I shall work toward a goal of maximum-cooperation between the Council and the several departments of the city government."

The candidate and her family have made their home in Albany for the past nine years, coming from Iowa in 1944. She is a graduate of the University of North Dakota, where she majored in home economics and education. Mrs. Arnold has been active in Marin and Albany High School PTAs, as well as Girl Scouts, Red Cross and Community Chest work. During 1953, she served as president of the United Women's Society of her church.

Mrs. Arnold and her husband, a chemical engineering consultant are the parents of five children.

"Since my husband does much of his work in his office at home," said Mrs. Arnold, "I have much more freedom for outside activities than most mothers of young children, and with family cooperation

I am confident that I can meet any responsibilities as a Council member."

The knowledge gained in legal negotiations during all of this service qualifies me, I believe, to give the officials of the City prompt,

intelligent, sincere and dependable

legal advice.

"The endorsement of any and all citizens or groups of citizens is sincerely requested. I desire only to serve the City which has been my home for the past 19 years;

where my children were born and

Joseph Young Announces for City Attorney

Joseph Novino Young, former Albany City Attorney from 1938 to 1946, today has confirmed the rumor that he is a candidate for that office at the Albany City election scheduled for April 13.

In declaring his candidacy, Young said,

"At the solicitation of many citizens of Albany, I have decided to enter the race for City Attorney of Albany. I am taking this important step as an independent with absolutely no political axe to shred."

TV NEWS

By MILT BLANCHARD

News notes about the video stars: Jackie Gleason's broken leg, suffered in the final moments of his recent Saturday night show, might result in a closer supervision of gags by the TV networks. They can't afford to have their top attractions laid up, even for a few weeks... Joe E. Brown has been talking to the ABC network about a daytime TV show... Jimmy Gleason, already cast in the Dixie Dugan TV series which is being prepared, based on the comic strip, is reported to be taking over the father role in "Life of Riley."

Edward G. Robinson is dealing with film producer Sam Bischoff about a new TV series. Robinson will star as a defense attorney, the role to be called "For the Defense." Betty White, star of a new BBC network morning TV show from Hollywood, is the heroine of a real Cinderella story. She was a secretary when a disk jockey drafted her as his assistant on a local TV program. When the disk jockey moved on she took over the show herself. Now she's seen all over the country with her own show.

This year's Academy Awards ceremonies will again be seen nationwide on March 25th. This bi-monthly night of the year for movieland is being strictly geared for television. Every night is an important night for the TV set owner... and reception trouble can really spoil the show. If you want an Oscar winning performance every night on your video screen, call us for dependable TV service. SKIP'S RADIO & TELEVISION SERVICE, 1553 Solano Ave. Phone LA. 5-4313.
